Media Advisory

Fall River, MA – Mayor Paul E. Coogan has announced the appointment of a seven-person advisory committee that will conduct interviews and make a recommendation to fill the position of Chief of Police. The committee is made up of a cross-section of the community including law enforcement, health care, neighborhood leaders and the faith-based community.

The interviews will take place on Thursday, April 30, 2020 and the committee's recommendation will be forwarded to the Mayor for his consideration. There are three internal candidates for the position from the Fall River Police Department ranks. These interviews will not be conducted in a public forum so as to adhere to the COVID-19 protocol for social distancing.
